

11/15/2013

La Porte is 25th in Safest Cities in Texas

The City of La Porte has always prided itself on being a low crime and tight-knit community to live in and, this week, Safewise.com has agreed by naming La Porte the 25th safest city in Texas to live in.

The safety and security company expressed that they were impressed with all aspects of La Porte, announcing, "If you are in search of an affordable water community that's also safe and oozes small town charm you've just found it."

Not only did the city, as quoted on the Safewise website, have only 10 robberies and 18 aggravated assault reports in 2011, the Police Department also announced in its 2012 annual report that the city's crime rate was down yet another 5.7% from 2011.

You can read more from safewise.com and why they think life by the bay is a perfect fit for families at: <http://www.safewise.com/blog/safewise-50-safest-cities-texas/>