

La Porte/Bayshore Sun

July 6th, 2008

Adcox named Chief of Police

The city of La Porte has hired a new Chief of Police, Kenith Adcox.

Chief Adcox is currently the Assistant Chief of Police in El Paso, where he has served for 22 years.

His employment with the city of La Porte will begin on July 21, 2008.

Throughout his tenure with the City of El Paso Police Department, Chief Adcox

Kenith Adcox

has served in a wide variety of administrative, investigative and operational assignments. Among his list of accomplishments includes facilitating the design and publication of a comprehensive "Neighborhood Watch and Crime Prevention" Manual for distribution to 117,000 residents.

He also served as the chair of the El Paso Law Enforcement and Private Security consortium, and was awarded one of only three Organizational Awards of Merit given worldwide by the American Society of Industrial Security in recognition of the El Paso program's leadership and training innovations.

Chief Adcox holds a Bachelors of Science degree in Criminal Justice Administration, and a Masters degree of Public Administration. While completing his Masters Degree he earned the Outstanding Research Achievement Award. Currently, he is studying for his Doctorate of Management degree with an anticipated completion date of August 2010.

The city of La Porte extends a warm welcome to Chief Kenith Adcox and his family and looks forward to his knowledge and leadership within the La Porte Police Department.